

Professor (em.) Dr. G.Vijayavenugopal(EFEO Pondy)

Senior Research Fellow for the Caṅkam group

gvgg@efeo-pondicherry.org; gvgopal14@gmail.com

“A critical edition of the Puranāṅṅūru”

G. Vijayavenugopal (b. 1935) was educated in Annamalai University – M.A. (Tamil language & Literature (1961), M.Litt. (1963), Ph.D. (1975), Diploma in Linguistics (1963), Diploma in Telugu (1965), Diploma in Epigraphy and Archaeology (1975). After teaching at the Annamalai University (1965-68) he joined the Madurai University (1968) and held positions like Professor of Comparative Literature , Professor of Art History and Aesthetics, Special Officer for Planning and Development, Founder – Principal of Madurai Kamaraj University College, Director, Evening College. He taught at the College of Wooster, Ohio, USA (1971) and the University of Wisconsin, Madison, USA (1977-79). After retiring from Madurai Kamaraj University he joined the Centre of Pondicherry of the Ecole française d'Extrême Orient in 1997. His present areas of specialisation are Epigraphy and Tamil linguistics.

Books:

A Modern Evaluation of Nannul, Annamalai University, Annamalainagar, 1968.

Nominal Composition in Tamil, Madurai Kamaraj University, 1979.

Intiya Ilakkiya-k-kotpatukal–Part I , Thamarai Publications, Madurai, 1984.

Pondicherry Inscriptions – Part I+II, Introduction and Texts with Notes (Compiled by Bahour S.Kuppusamy),English Translation of Part I with Glossary and Appendices. Edited by G.Vijayavenugopal, Institut Francais de Pondicherry, Ecole Francaise d'Extreme Orient, Collection Indologie 83.1+83.2, Pondicherry, 2006 + 2010.